When you are concerned for the health and safety of a loved one due to their drug or alcohol use, it can be a scary and isolating experience.

However, you are not alone.

In this group you will meet individuals with the same concerns and learn supportive strategies to help loved ones change.

Members will learn how to improve relationships with loved ones and with themselves!

Send referral requests to jdubose@allhealthnetwork.org
Include participant's NAME, DOB, ADDRESS, E-MAIL